The New Spring Millinery Review.

R Millinery Salon is in reception array. This review presents an exhaustive showing of the masterful millinery productions of the new season. Foremost, of course, are the exquisite French Hats, with a distinguished character all their own. Then there are the Woodward & Lothrop creations, made in our own workrooms by expert milliners. In them the styles of Paris and other fashion centers are Americanized. Our designers are loval to the theme or motif that the world of fashion dictates; but its evolution in their hands brings forth a beauty and character all its own. And, side by side with the best handiwork of foreign modistes, we proudly display our own creations. To see this display is to witness the trend of Millinery

Fashions for spring and summer, presented in an authoritative manner and entrancing in its variety of shapes and treatments. You are cordially invited to inspect this collection of beautiful

GETS LICENSE AS JOKE. Man Willing but Girl Decided Not to Wed Him. Portland, Oreg., Feb. 28 .- "I did it on dare," explained Fred De Martini, a I couldn't let her back me out, so I said I would get the license, and she said she would keep her word. I put through my part of the contract, but she changed

"I kept the license as long as it was

Spinach Balls. Press all the liquid from a cupful of ooked and chopped spinach. Repeat it with two tablespoonfuls of butter, two with salt, pepper, sugar, and mace. Beat two eggs thoroughly and add them to the More than one hundred men were in spinach. Take it from the fire and, when cool enough, shape it into balls with buttered spoons. Place these in boiling water drain them. Make a cream sauce and while is is cooking put in the spinach

NEW YORK POINTS OF INTEREST

Hundreds of Them Within Comparatively Short Distances of the Hotel St. Regis.

The length of the Island of Manhattan varies from eight miles on the east to twelve miles on the west. The average width is one mile. Fifth avenue is the central dividing line between the eastern and western sections. On Fifth avenue, at Fifty-fifth street, is located the Hotel St. Regis, five miles from the Battery River. This location in practically the geographical center of the city insures the shortest distance and the least travel for guests of this hotel to the many points of interest to be found in Manhattan Borough, Central Park and the Metropolitan Art Museum are within a few blocks, the Natural History Museum requires but a five minutes' ride, while the be reached in even less time. The St. Regis, will be remembered, was fitted up and furnished with an exquisiteness that knew no stint, yet it is the farthest removed from the ostentatious. Its atmosphere is one of homelikeness and refined comfort. The St. Regis restaurant has no superior in all the world in quality of food, skill in preparation, and perfection of service, while the charges are no higher than those of other first-class hotels. Transient guests coming to New York and stopping at the Hotel St. Regis will find
